Note:

Hunar Sikhia School (HSS) Senior Secondary (10+2) Certificates issued by PSEB should be considered for admission to the above relevant programmes subject to the stated programme-specific requirements. HSS-Digital Design & Development does not, by itself, replace the compulsory computing subjects for BCA until formal equivalence/bridge-route approval is granted. Functional English is not presently accepted as equivalent to the specified English subject for BA English. Programmes requiring prescribed PCM/PCB/Science combinations, NATA or RCI conditions are not made generally eligible merely by HSS certification. B.Sc. Data Science is reported by the University as not offered in Academic Session 2026–27.

Scholarship and merit calculations remain governed by the Admission Prospectus 2026 and applicable Amity University Punjab policy. In particular, vocational/non-written subjects may be excluded from aggregate calculation except in relevant disciplines. Admission does not follow automatically from qualification recognition.

NOTIFICATION

Subject: Recognition of Hunar Sikhia School (HSS) Senior Secondary (10+2) Qualification for Admissions at Amity University Punjab

Amity University Punjab (AUP) is pleased to inform all prospective students that the Directorate of Higher Education, Punjab has recognized the Hunar Sikhia School (HSS) Senior Secondary (10+2) Certificate for admission to higher education institutions across the State.

In accordance with the notification issued by the Office of the Director, Higher Education, Punjab (Memo No. Office/Coll.Edu.(2)/285 dated 26.02.2026), the Hunar Sikhia School (HSS) Programme affiliated with the Punjab School Education Board (PSEB) was introduced from Academic Session 2025–26. Students successfully completing the programme are awarded the PSEB Senior Secondary (10+2) Pass Certificate, recognized as equivalent to the conventional Senior Secondary (10+2) qualification.

Accordingly, Amity University Punjab shall accept the HSS Senior Secondary (10+2) Certificate as a qualifying credential for admission to relevant undergraduate programmes, subject to programme-specific marks, compulsory subjects, equivalence decisions, entrance/selection requirements and applicable regulatory norms.

Key Highlights:

- The PSEB-issued HSS Senior Secondary (10+2) Certificate shall be recognized as a valid 10+2 qualification for consideration of higher education admission.
- Marks obtained in HSS subjects shall be considered for eligibility and aggregate calculations only in accordance with the programme-specific requirements, including applicable exclusions for vocational/non-written subjects.
- Functional English under HSS is NOT presently treated as equivalent to the prescribed English subject for BA (Hons.) English / BA English (Honours/Honours with Research). The requirement of at least 70% in the prescribed English subject remains unchanged.
- HSS candidates meeting 60% aggregate and at least 70% in Mathematics or Economics (including an additional academic subject) may apply for the relevant Economics programmes.
- For BCA, the published qualifying-subject condition remains applicable. HSS-DDD alone does not establish subject equivalence; any alternative through DDD mapping or a bridge course is subject to approval by the competent BoS/Academic Council.
- HSS students with at least 55% in 10+2 may apply for the listed B.Sc. Clinical Psychology programmes irrespective of their HSS trade; the separate RCI-approved bachelor's in clinical psychology has different science-stream requirements.
- HSS graduates may apply for multidisciplinary, general, professional and other relevant programmes only where all published eligibility and selection criteria are met
- Scholarships, financial assistance and other institutional benefits shall be governed by the University's published scholarship policy and the eligibility conditions applicable to each scheme.
- These provisions shall apply for Academic Session 2026–27, subject to approval and issuance by the competent University authority.

Amity University Punjab welcomes eligible candidates who have completed Senior Secondary (10+2) education under the Hunar Sikhia School (HSS) Programme to apply in accordance with the University's prescribed programme-wise eligibility criteria, as detailed in the attached schedule.
